McSWEENEY HAS A LEVEL HEAD

Refuses to Accept Resignations—Says South Carolina is Sick of Politics

Columbia, S. C., May 31.—Governor McSweeney today refused to accept the resignations of Senators Tillman and McLaurin, on the ground that the "state is sick of politics, and objects to being confronted with another bitter campaign this year."
This is, no doubt, very refreshing to both gentlemen in question, as the public has questioned very seriously their sincerity in wanting the governor to accept their resignations. The general sentiment is that it was simply a grand stand play, and that it was a great pity that a third man could not have entered the race and defeated both of them.

CAMP WILL CAPTURE CONVICTS

He and His Partner Secure a Writ of Mandamus From the Circuit Court

Tallahassee, May 31.

Camp & West, the naval stores magnates of Florida, who thought they had made a legitimate contract for the state convicts at a given figure, were granted a writ of mandamus this morning by Judge Malone of the circuit court. This will precipitate a hard legal battle in which Palmer of Hillsborough will no doubt be one of the principal participants, as it was through this gentleman that Camp & West made a previous contract with the state for the convicts, that was broken by the governor. The mandamus is directed to the board of state institutions ordering it to deliver the convicts to Camp & West. The case will be appealed at once to the supreme court.
